The IMAM COLLECTIVE have just released the single 'Baltimore' as a taster for their upcoming EP. The band leader is Pakistan born guitarist Imam Hamdani and his team are - Drums, Darren Poindexter; Bass, Chris Sartori; Keys, Derek Dupuis; Trumpet, Alex Lee Clark and Bamboo Flute, Jay Gandhi . Between them, on 'Baltimore', they cook up a tight jazz funk feast with each player getting to stretch out over the tune's almost six minutes.

'Baltimore' like the rest of the EP was recorded at Boston's Iron Wax studios with Alan Evans (Soulive) at the controls. A diligent web search will allow you to discover more.
