Though today she's known to millions of UK TV viewers as a makeover show presenter, the versatile and multi-talented MICA PARIS, started off as a soul singer in the late-'80s and notched up several substantial UK hits (including the classic single, 'My One Temptation' in 1988).

Her last album, 2005's 'Soul Classics,' finally has a follow-up: it's called 'Born Again' and is released by Rhythm Riders Records on 10th June. The CD is preceded by a James Morrison-penned single, 'Baby Come Back' (out 25th May). Mica has high hopes for the album which she claims is "the best album I have ever made" and is going on an extensive UK tour to promote it.
