DAVID MCLORREN is a man of many talents...Producer, keyboardist, drummer, bassist, singer and songwriter and we've seen his name appended to all kinds of releases over the last few years.

His latest offering is an intriguing instrumental 'Eighty Ate' – a play on words on the number of keys on a piano. David assures us that for the tune, he does actually use all 88 keys! Quite an achievement!

Musically the tune rides the cusp of smooth jazz and chill out. It's beautifully crafted and worth checking!
