One of the many fine cuts on the recent chart topping UK Soul Chart compilation album was 'Chill' by TILLY GRACE. Keeping the ball rolling, Tilly is now working a new single..... 'Ghetto Superstar'. It's a heavier sound than 'Chill' –a throwback to the Brit soul of the 80s... with hints and shadings of Soul II Soul, Family Stand and Carleen Anderson... why there's even an organic rap from Mr Cotton.

And if you enjoyed 'Chill', 'Ghetto Superstar's' putative B side is an extended Nigel Lewis mix of the breezy little cut. Out now on DSG.
