ODED NIR is a bass player, producer, remixer and electronic live artist from Amsterdam. He also runs Suntree Records and that (obviously) is the label for his upcoming long player –'Rooftop Conversations'. To whet our appetites, Mr N has just released the title cut –a mellow, jazzy, dance groove that features the oh so cool trumpet of Ms Saskia Laroo (dubbed as the 'Lady Miles Davis').

It's not your average soulful house track – more your typical jazzy house track but it's intriguing and beguiling, Oded says: "'Rooftop Conversations' is a creative discussion between artists and their instruments. It's a track that will stimulate your alpha waves to create a relaxed and laid back state of mind." ... there you go – see if you agree by investigating when the cut wins release on March 22nd.
