It's been quite a year for Washington born but European based soulstress TERRI GREEN. Her TERRI GREEN PROJECT (a collaboration with Todd Reed) has issued a number of top class dance singles – things like 'Night To Remember', 'Giving It Up' and latterly 'Dance Tonight'.

The good news is that next month we get to enjoy a whole album from Terri... her 'What A Feeling' hits the sales racks in September and we'll bring you a full review of the hotly anticipated set very soon.
