The latest offering from the uber talented JAMES DAY is a sweet and big modern soul dancer 'Celebrate Your Body'. For the release Mr Day is collaborating with Skytown Records and goes out under the name J.D'S TIME MACHINE.

Helping James deliver his very special sound are vocalists Sandra St Victor, Karen Bernod, and Tim Owens and guitarist U-Nam.

'Celebrate Your Body' comes in four different mixes – one of which throws up a rap from Chubb Rock.

James is particularly proud of the project: "I've wanted to do something like this for some time, but bringing together all the right components was not easy".

He's delighted that the song's message of self-love and inclusion is winning so much support... and rightly so!
